24 as set forth in IC 24-4-27.5-12.

25 (c) Any representations on or within a product or its packaging or 26 in advertising or promotional materials which would constitute a
27 deceptive act shall be the deceptive act both of the supplier who places
28 such representation thereon or therein, or who authored such materials, 29 and such other suppliers who shall state orally or in writing that such 30 representation is true if such other supplier shall know or have reason 31 to know that such representation was false.

32 (d) If a supplier shows by a preponderance of the evidence that an 33 act resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of 34 procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error, such act shall not be 35 deceptive within the meaning of this chapter.

36 (e) It shall be a defense to any action brought under this chapter that 37 the representation constituting an alleged deceptive act was one made 38 in good faith by the supplier without knowledge of its falsity and in 39 reliance upon the oral or written representations of the manufacturer,
40 the person from whom the supplier acquired the product, any testing
41 organization, or any other person provided that the source thereof is 42 disclosed to the consumer.

1 (f) For purposes of subsection (b)(12), a supplier that provides
 2 estimates before performing repair or replacement work for a customer 3 shall give the customer a written estimate itemizing as closely as 4 possible the price for labor and parts necessary for the specific job
 5 before commencing the work.

6 (g) For purposes of subsection (b)(15) and (b)(16), a telephone
 7 company or other provider of a telephone directory or directory
 8 assistance service or its officer or agent is immune from liability for 9 publishing the listing of an alternate business name or assumed
 10 business name of a supplier in its directory or directory assistance data
 11 base unless the telephone company or other provider of a telephone 12 directory or directory assistance service is the same person as the 13 supplier who has committed the deceptive act.

14 (h) For purposes of subsection (b)(18), it is an affirmative defense 15 to any action brought under this chapter that the product has been 16 altered by a person other than the defendant to render the product
 17 completely incapable of serving its original purpose.

18 SECTION 4. IC 24-5-0.5-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.186-2025,
 19 SECTION 133, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS
 20 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 4. (a) A person relying upon an 21 uncured or incurable deceptive act may bring an action for the damages
 22 actually suffered as a consumer as a result of the deceptive act or five 23 hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater. The court may increase 24 damages for a willful deceptive act in an amount that does not exceed 25 the greater of:

- 26 (1) three (3) times the actual damages of the consumer suffering
- 27 the loss; or
- 28 (2) one thousand dollars ($1,000).

29 Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may award reasonable 30 attorney's fees to the party that prevails in an action under this 31 subsection. This subsection does not apply to a consumer transaction
 32 in real property, including a claim or action involving a construction
 33 defect (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(5)) brought against a construction
 34 professional (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(4)), except for purchases of 35 time shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not 36 apply with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of 37 this chapter. This subsection also does not apply to a violation of 38 IC 24-4.7, IC 24-5-12, IC 24-5-14, or IC 24-5-14.5. Actual damages
 39 awarded to a person under this section have priority over any civil 40 penalty imposed under this chapter.

41 (b) Any person who is entitled to bring an action under subsection
 42 (a) on the person's own behalf against a supplier for damages for a

1 deceptive act may bring a class action against such supplier on behalf
 2 of any class of persons of which that person is a member and which has 3 been damaged by such deceptive act, subject to and under the Indiana
 4 Rules of Trial Procedure governing class actions, except as herein
 5 expressly provided. Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may 6 award reasonable attorney's fees to the party that prevails in a class
 7 action under this subsection, provided that such fee shall be determined 8 by the amount of time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by 9 the amount of the judgment, although the contingency of the fee may 10 be considered. Except in the case of an extension of time granted by the 11 attorney general under IC 24-10-2-2(b) in an action subject to IC 24-10, 12 any money or other property recovered in a class action under this 13 subsection which cannot, with due diligence, be restored to consumers
 14 within one (1) year after the judgment becomes final shall be returned
 15 to the party depositing the same. This subsection does not apply to a 16 consumer transaction in real property, except for purchases of time
 17 shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply
 18 with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this 19 chapter. Actual damages awarded to a class have priority over any civil 20 penalty imposed under this chapter.

21 (c) The attorney general may bring an action to enjoin an unfair,
 22 abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a
 23 consumer transaction, including a deceptive act described in section 24 3(b)(20) of this chapter, notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b).
 25 However, the attorney general may seek to enjoin patterns of incurable
 26 deceptive acts with respect to consumer transactions in real property.
 27 In addition, the court may:

- 28 (1) issue an injunction;
- 29 (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully
 30 received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for 31 distribution to aggrieved consumers;
- 32 (3) for a knowing violation against a senior consumer, increase 33 the amount of restitution ordered under subdivision (2) in any 34 amount up to three (3) times the amount of damages incurred or 35 value of property or assets lost;
- 36 (4) order the supplier to pay to the state the reasonable costs of 37 the attorney general's investigation and prosecution, expert fees,
 38 and court fees related to the action;
- 39 (5) provide for the appointment of a receiver; and
- 40 (6) order the department of state revenue to suspend the supplier's
 41 registered retail merchant certificate, subject to the requirements
 42 and prohibitions contained in IC 6-2.5-8-7(a)(5), if the court finds

1 that a violation of this chapter involved the sale or solicited sale
 2 of a synthetic drug (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321), a synthetic
 3 drug lookalike substance (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321.5
 4 (repealed)) (before July 1, 2019), a controlled substance analog
 5 (as defined in IC 35-48-1.1-8), or a substance represented to be a
 6 controlled substance (as described in IC 35-48-4-4.6).

7 (d) In an action under subsection (a), (b), (c), or (n) the court may 8 void or limit the application of contracts or clauses resulting from 9 deceptive acts and order restitution to be paid to aggrieved consumers.

10 (e) In any action under subsection (a) or (b), upon the filing of the 11 complaint or on the appearance of any defendant, claimant, or any 12 other party, or at any later time, the trial court, the supreme court, or the 13 court of appeals may require the plaintiff, defendant, claimant, or any 14 other party or parties to give security, or additional security, in such 15 sum as the court shall direct to pay all costs, expenses, and 16 disbursements that shall be awarded against that party or which that 17 party may be directed to pay by any interlocutory order by the final 18 judgment or on appeal.

19 (f) Any person who violates the terms of an injunction issued under 20 subsection (c) or (n) shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty of 21 not more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per violation. For the 22 purposes of this section, the court issuing an injunction shall retain 23 jurisdiction, the cause shall be continued, and the attorney general 24 acting in the name of the state may petition for recovery of civil 25 penalties. Whenever the court determines that an injunction issued
 26 under subsection (c) or (n) has been violated, the court shall award 27 reasonable costs to the state.

28 (g) If a court finds any person has knowingly violated section 3 or 29 10 of this chapter, other than section 3(b)(19), 3(b)(20), or 3(b)(40) of 30 this chapter, the attorney general, in an action pursuant to subsection
 31 (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty
 32 of a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

33 (h) If a court finds that a person has violated section 3(b)(19) of this 34 chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may 35 recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty as follows:

36 (1) For a knowing or intentional violation, one thousand five 37 hundred dollars ($1,500).

38 (2) For a violation other than a knowing or intentional violation,
 39 five hundred dollars ($500).

40 A civil penalty recovered under this subsection shall be deposited in 41 the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund 42 established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be used for the administration and enforcement of section 3(b)(19) of this chapter.

(i) A senior consumer relying upon an uncured or incurable deceptive act, including an act related to hypnotism, may bring an action to recover treble damages, if appropriate.

(j) An offer to cure is:

(1) not admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under this section unless the offer to cure is delivered by a supplier to the consumer or a representative of the consumer before the supplier files the supplier's initial response to a complaint; and

(2) only admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under this section to prove that a supplier is not liable for attorney's fees under subsection (k).

If the offer to cure is timely delivered by the supplier, the supplier may submit the offer to cure as evidence to prove in the proceeding in accordance with the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure that the supplier made an offer to cure.

(k) A supplier may not be held liable for the attorney's fees and court costs of the consumer that are incurred following the timely delivery of an offer to cure as described in subsection (j) unless the actual damages awarded, not including attorney's fees and costs, exceed the value of the offer to cure.

(l) If a court finds that a person has knowingly violated section 3(b)(20) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) per consumer. In determining the amount of the civil penalty in any action by the attorney general under this subsection, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the frequency and persistence of noncompliance by the debt collector, the nature of the noncompliance, and the extent to which the noncompliance was intentional. A person may not be held liable in any action by the attorney general for a violation of section 3(b)(20) of this chapter if the person shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. A person may not be held liable in any action for a violation of this chapter for contacting a person other than the debtor, if the contact is made in compliance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

(m) If a court finds that a person has knowingly or intentionally violated section 3(b)(40) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b). As

1 specified in IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), a civil penalty recovered under
 2 IC 24-5-14.5-12(b) shall be deposited in the consumer protection
 3 division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be 4 used for the administration and enforcement of IC 24-5-14.5. In 5 addition to the recovery of a civil penalty in accordance with 6 IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), the attorney general may also recover reasonable
 7 attorney fees and court costs from the person on behalf of the state.
 8 Those funds shall also be deposited in the consumer protection division
 9 telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6.

10 (n) An action that arises from, or otherwise involves, an unfair,
 11 abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a 12 consumer transaction described in section 2(a)(1)(D)(i) or 13 2(a)(1)(D)(iii) of this chapter may be brought and enforced only by the 14 attorney general under this subsection. An action that arises from, or 15 otherwise involves, an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or 16 practice in connection with a consumer transaction described in section
 17 2(a)(1)(D)(ii) or 2(a)(1)(D)(iv) of this chapter may be brought and 18 enforced only by an attorney acting on behalf of the local law
 19 enforcement agency or local agency involved in the transaction, unless 20 the local unit of government served by the local law enforcement 21 agency or local agency requests the attorney general to bring and 22 enforce an action under this subsection on behalf of the local unit. In 23 addition, the court may:

24 (1) issue an injunction;

25 (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully
 26 received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for 27 distribution to aggrieved consumers; or

28 (3) order the supplier to pay to:

29 (A) the attorney acting on behalf of the local law enforcement
 30 agency or local agency; or

31 (B) the attorney general for the state;

32 as applicable, the reasonable costs of the attorney's or the attorney
 33 general's investigation and prosecution, expert fees, and court fees
 34 related to the action.

35 The time for bringing an action under subsection (c), as set forth in 36 section 5(b) of this chapter, applies to an action brought under this 37 subsection.

SECTION 3. IC 24-5-0.5-3, AS AMENDED BY P.L.104-2024, SECTION 42, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 3. (a) A supplier may not commit an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a consumer transaction. Such an act, omission, or practice by a supplier is a violation of this chapter whether it occurs before, during, or after the transaction. An act, omission, or practice prohibited by this section includes both implicit and explicit misrepresentations.

(b) Without limiting the scope of subsection (a), the following acts, and the following representations as to the subject matter of a consumer transaction, made orally, in writing, or by electronic communication, by a supplier, are deceptive acts:

(1) That such subject of a consumer transaction has sponsorship, approval, performance, characteristics, accessories, uses, or benefits it does not have which the supplier knows or should reasonably know it does not have.

(2) That such subject of a consumer transaction is of a particular standard, quality, grade, style, or model, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

(3) That such subject of a consumer transaction is new or unused, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

(4) That such subject of a consumer transaction will be supplied to the public in greater quantity than the supplier intends or reasonably expects.

(5) That replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction is needed, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

(6) That a specific price advantage exists as to such subject of a consumer transaction, if it does not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it does not.

(7) That the supplier has a sponsorship, approval, or affiliation in such consumer transaction the supplier does not have, and which the supplier knows or should reasonably know that the supplier does not have.

(8) That such consumer transaction involves or does not involve a warranty, a disclaimer of warranties, or other rights, remedies, or obligations, if the representation is false and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that the representation is false.

(9) That the consumer will receive a rebate, discount, or other benefit as an inducement for entering into a sale or lease in return for giving the supplier the names of prospective consumers or otherwise helping the supplier to enter into other consumer transactions, if earning the benefit, rebate, or discount is contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time the consumer agrees to the purchase or lease.

(10) That the supplier is able to deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a stated period of time, when the supplier knows or should reasonably know the supplier could not. If no time period has been stated by the supplier, there is a presumption that the supplier has represented that the supplier will deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction within a reasonable time, according to the course of dealing or the usage of the trade.

(11) That the consumer will be able to purchase the subject of the consumer transaction as advertised by the supplier, if the supplier does not intend to sell it.

(12) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction can be made by the supplier for the estimate the supplier gives a customer for the replacement or repair, if the specified work is completed and:

- (A) the cost exceeds the estimate by an amount equal to or greater than ten percent (10%) of the estimate;
- (B) the supplier did not obtain written permission from the customer to authorize the supplier to complete the work even if the cost would exceed the amounts specified in clause (A);
- (C) the total cost for services and parts for a single transaction is more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750); and
- (D) the supplier knew or reasonably should have known that the cost would exceed the estimate in the amounts specified in clause (A).

(13) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a consumer transaction is needed, and that the supplier disposes of the part repaired or replaced earlier than seventy-two (72) hours after both:

- (A) the customer has been notified that the work has been completed; and
- (B) the part repaired or replaced has been made available for examination upon the request of the customer.

(14) Engaging in the replacement or repair of the subject of a consumer transaction if the consumer has not authorized the replacement or repair, and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not authorized.

(15) The act of misrepresenting the geographic location of the supplier by listing an alternate business name or an assumed business name (as described in IC 23-0.5-3-4) in a local telephone directory if:

- (A) the name misrepresents the supplier's geographic location;
- (B) the listing fails to identify the locality and state of the supplier's business;
- (C) calls to the local telephone number are routinely forwarded or otherwise transferred to a supplier's business location that is outside the calling area covered by the local telephone directory; and
- (D) the supplier's business location is located in a county that is not contiguous to a county in the calling area covered by the local telephone directory.

SECTION 4. IC 24-5-0.5-4, AS AMENDED BY P.L.186-2025, SECTION 133, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2026]: Sec. 4. (a) A person relying upon an uncured or incurable deceptive act may bring an action for the damages actually suffered as a consumer as a result of the deceptive act or five hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater. The court may increase damages for a willful deceptive act in an amount that does not exceed the greater of:

- (1) three (3) times the actual damages of the consumer suffering the loss; or
- (2) one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the party that prevails in an action under this subsection. This subsection does not apply to a consumer transaction in real property, including a claim or action involving a construction defect (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(5)) brought against a construction professional (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(4)), except for purchases of time shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this chapter. This subsection also does not apply to a violation of IC 24-4.7, IC 24-5-12, IC 24-5-14, or IC 24-5-14.5. Actual damages awarded to a person under this section have priority over any civil penalty imposed under this chapter.

(b) Any person who is entitled to bring an action under subsection (a) on the person's own behalf against a supplier for damages for a deceptive act may bring a class action against such supplier on behalf of any class of persons of which that person is a member and which has been damaged by such deceptive act, subject to and under the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure governing class actions, except as herein expressly provided. Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the party that prevails in a class action under this subsection, provided that such fee shall be determined by the amount of time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by the amount of the judgment, although the contingency of the fee may be considered. Except in the case of an extension of time granted by the attorney general under IC 24-10-2-2(b) in an action subject to IC 24-10, any money or other property recovered in a class action under this subsection which cannot, with due diligence, be restored to consumers within one (1) year after the judgment becomes final shall be returned to the party depositing the same. This subsection does not apply to a consumer transaction in real property, except for purchases of time shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this chapter. Actual damages awarded to a class have priority over any civil penalty imposed under this chapter.

(c) The attorney general may bring an action to enjoin an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a consumer transaction, including a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this chapter, notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b). However, the attorney general may seek to enjoin patterns of incurable deceptive acts with respect to consumer transactions in real property. In addition, the court may:

- (1) issue an injunction;
- (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for distribution to aggrieved consumers;
- (3) for a knowing violation against a senior consumer, increase the amount of restitution ordered under subdivision (2) in any amount up to three (3) times the amount of damages incurred or

value of property or assets lost;

(4) order the supplier to pay to the state the reasonable costs of the attorney general's investigation and prosecution, expert fees, and court fees related to the action;

(5) provide for the appointment of a receiver; and

(6) order the department of state revenue to suspend the supplier's registered retail merchant certificate, subject to the requirements and prohibitions contained in IC 6-2.5-8-7(a)(5), if the court finds that a violation of this chapter involved the sale or solicited sale of a synthetic drug (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321), a synthetic drug lookalike substance (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321.5 (repealed)) (before July 1, 2019), a controlled substance analog (as defined in IC 35-48-1.1-8), or a substance represented to be a controlled substance (as described in IC 35-48-4-4.6).

(d) In an action under subsection (a), (b), (c), or (n) the court may void or limit the application of contracts or clauses resulting from deceptive acts and order restitution to be paid to aggrieved consumers.

(e) In any action under subsection (a) or (b), upon the filing of the complaint or on the appearance of any defendant, claimant, or any other party, or at any later time, the trial court, the supreme court, or the court of appeals may require the plaintiff, defendant, claimant, or any other party or parties to give security, or additional security, in such sum as the court shall direct to pay all costs, expenses, and disbursements that shall be awarded against that party or which that party may be directed to pay by any interlocutory order by the final judgment or on appeal.

(f) Any person who violates the terms of an injunction issued under subsection (c) or (n) shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty of not more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per violation. For the purposes of this section, the court issuing an injunction shall retain jurisdiction, the cause shall be continued, and the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for recovery of civil penalties. Whenever the court determines that an injunction issued under subsection (c) or (n) has been violated, the court shall award reasonable costs to the state.

(g) If a court finds any person has knowingly violated section 3 or 10 of this chapter, other than section 3(b)(19), 3(b)(20), or 3(b)(40) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action pursuant to subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty of a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

(h) If a court finds that a person has violated section 3(b)(19) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty as follows:

- (1) For a knowing or intentional violation, one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).
- (2) For a violation other than a knowing or intentional violation, five hundred dollars ($500).

A civil penalty recovered under this subsection shall be deposited in the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be used for the administration and enforcement of section 3(b)(19) of this chapter.

(i) A senior consumer relying upon an uncured or incurable deceptive act, including an act related to hypnotism, may bring an action to recover treble damages, if appropriate.

(j) An offer to cure is:

- (1) not admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under this section unless the offer to cure is delivered by a supplier to the consumer or a representative of the consumer before the supplier files the supplier's initial response to a complaint; and
- (2) only admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under this section to prove that a supplier is not liable for attorney's fees under subsection (k).

If the offer to cure is timely delivered by the supplier, the supplier may submit the offer to cure as evidence to prove in the proceeding in accordance with the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure that the supplier made an offer to cure.

(k) A supplier may not be held liable for the attorney's fees and court costs of the consumer that are incurred following the timely delivery of an offer to cure as described in subsection (j) unless the actual damages awarded, not including attorney's fees and costs, exceed the value of the offer to cure.

(l) If a court finds that a person has knowingly violated section 3(b)(20) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) per consumer. In determining the amount of the civil penalty in any action by the attorney general under this subsection, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the frequency and persistence of noncompliance by the debt collector, the nature of the noncompliance, and the extent to which the noncompliance was intentional. A person may not be held liable in any action by the attorney general for a violation of section 3(b)(20) of this chapter if the person shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. A person may not be held liable in any action for a violation of this chapter for contacting a person other than the debtor, if the contact is made in compliance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

(m) If a court finds that a person has knowingly or intentionally violated section 3(b)(40) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b). As specified in IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), a civil penalty recovered under IC 24-5-14.5-12(b) shall be deposited in the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be used for the administration and enforcement of IC 24-5-14.5. In addition to the recovery of a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), the attorney general may also recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs from the person on behalf of the state. Those funds shall also be deposited in the consumer protection division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6.

(n) An action that arises from, or otherwise involves, an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a consumer transaction described in section 2(a)(1)(D)(i) or 2(a)(1)(D)(iii) of this chapter may be brought and enforced only by the attorney general under this subsection. An action that arises from, or otherwise involves, an unfair, abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a consumer transaction described in section 2(a)(1)(D)(ii) or 2(a)(1)(D)(iv) of this chapter may be brought and enforced only by an attorney acting on behalf of the local law enforcement agency or local agency involved in the transaction, unless the local unit of government served by the local law enforcement agency or local agency requests the attorney general to bring and enforce an action under this subsection on behalf of the local unit. In addition, the court may:

- (1) issue an injunction;
- (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for distribution to aggrieved consumers; or
- (3) order the supplier to pay to:
 - (A) the attorney acting on behalf of the local law enforcement agency or local agency; or
 - (B) the attorney general for the state;
 as applicable, the reasonable costs of the attorney's or the attorney general's investigation and prosecution, expert fees, and court fees related to the action.

The time for bringing an action under subsection (c), as set forth in section 5(b) of this chapter, applies to an action brought under this subsection."
